

Our New Hedge Inside Our Big Wall!

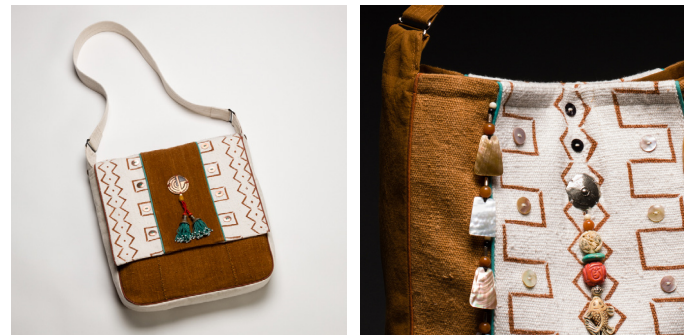

The committee got 4 bids for a hedge separating our park from Brommer St.: Anita (sp. 93) and Paula B (sp. 74). Sharon (sp. 75) was advisor and Joyce (sp. 9) shared her landscape architect daughter's ideas. After years of planning, the project is complete. Go see it! The landscape company (the name's in the office) worked well with Sorrento Oaks: brought in fresh soil, soil amendment, planted the pittosporum, added mulch and a new irrigation system on a timer. The plants will provide a living safety screen for our park, are drought resistant, hardy, will mostly grow vertically to 12-15 feet within 3-5 years.

Bags with history

Saundra (sp. 35) is in love with fabric, Mexico with its weavers and textiles, and folk art, vibrant colors! For years she's collected fabric from around the world, and small metal pieces such as buttons and coins for decorations. From these treasures she makes special bags/purses, shown in a Moss Landing gallery. Three sewing machines are her helpers! Adored fabrics are mud cloth made from men's delicate weavings from Mali, Africa (by the Ivory Coast) with dye set by women who place the new fabric in the mud; silk and canvas are adaptable to her bags and their décor.

As a child, Saundra learned about ethnic, tribal arts from Nat'l Geographic. She interpreted them to encourage the personality of each item she makes, and to give her a world view. Contact her for more information or to view her bags.

Our artists

Enjoy the art in the clubhouse even though we aren't meeting there right now. Contact Joanna (sp. 67) or Jan H (sp. 31) if you want to display your art there. New work is added now and then.
